

XTREME POWER CONVERSION A60-850 // CyberPower Ecologic EC850LCD COMPARISON

Both UPS systems provide standby power protection for desktop electronics and network devices. However, the Xtreme Power A60-850 offers wall-mount flexibility, USB charging capability, and TAA compliance, making it better suited for commercial, enterprise, and government environments.

850 VA Desktop / Wall-Mount UPS Comparison

Feature	Xtreme Power A60-850	CyberPower Ecologic EC850LCD	A60 Advantage
Capacity	850 VA / 500 W	850 VA / 510 W	Similar watt class
Form Factor	Desktop / Wall Mount	Desktop / Tower	Wall-mount flexibility
Topology	Standby	Standby	Equal topology
Receptacles	10 × NEMA 5-15R (5 battery + 5 surge)	12 × NEMA 5-15R (6 battery + 6 surge/ECO)	More outlets on CyberPower
LCD Display	Yes	Yes	Equal display capability
USB Charging Port	Yes – USB-A 5 V, 2.4 A	No	Device charging support
Dimensions (WxDxH)	6.2 × 12.0 × 3.7 in	7.0 × 12.2 × 3.1 in	Slimmer wall-mount profile
Recharge / Battery	8 hr typical	8 hr typical	Equal recharge
Weight	7.2 lb	7.7 lb	Slightly lighter
TAA Compliant	Yes	No	Approved for U.S. public-sector procurement
Warranty	3-year electronics & battery	3-year electronics & battery	Equal coverage

XTREME
Power Conversion®

Protect your business.

www.xpcc.com | Tel (800) 582-4524